4 Fun Ways to Celebrate St. Patty's Day

It's almost March 17th, the day millions of Americans celebrate St. Patrick's Day by wearing green, eating corned beef and cabbage, and attending parades. But, you don't have to be Irish to celebrate! People of all backgrounds enjoy getting dressed up and hanging out with friends during the celebrations. If you're looking for a new set of traditions, here are a few fun ways to celebrate on or around St. Patrick's Day this year:

1. Test your luck this year by setting up a scavenger hunt with your friends, family, or kids. You can hide treats around the house with clues, and who knows, you just may win the pot of gold!
2. Ireland has birthed some of history's most renowned poets in history. Luckily, you can get inspired for free by listening to the audio works of W.B. Yeats, Seamus Heaney, and Samuel Beckett on Spotify.
3. Invite your BFF, significant other, or roomie to take an Irish cooking class at a local culinary school. You can learn all of their culinary specialties for your St. Patty's Day party, like corned beef, cabbage, and more.
4. Irish music gets the heart going, and there's nothing like seeing it live. Grab your dancing partner and head to a live performance by any popular Irish performer

No matter which way you choose to enjoy St. Patrick's Day, be sure to have fun!

Green Living Tip

If you love magazine and newspaper subscriptions, but don't like having so many items to recycle, consider sharing subscriptions with your family, friends, or neighbors. You must decide on subscriptions that you are both interested in and then split the cost. Once you or your friend is done with the magazine or newspaper, simply pass it on. This not only is good for the environment, but will also save money in the long-run.

Reduce . Reuse . Recycle.
